

WORLD LITERACY DAY

Pallavan School celebrated World Literacy Day on September 8, 2017. The tag line of the event was "literacy is human right and basis of all knowledge." Mrs. Dimple Sharma and Mr. Chunamani Tyagi spoke on the importance of the day. A video was shown to the students of classes I to V to mark the importance of the day. The concept of literacy was elaborated among students. They were encouraged to opine about the significance of the day. Students of Jr. Wing discussed their aspirations and future goals with their teachers. Literacy, the ability to read and write, is the most important skill that children learn in School. The importance of celebrating the day is to promote the public consciousness about extraordinary value of written word and requirement. Literacy shapes the life of human beings as well as builds up their cultural identity.
