

A training program was conducted today for the students of class 9 & 10 facilitated by Pratishtha Arora from Social Media Matters, an organization which works in all aspects of Online safety. They have created innovative tech solutions for positive use of social media.

