

PALLAVAN UPV, JHALAWAR

Report on career counseling workshop:

Date: 7.4.2018

Venue : Pallavan UPV , Maths lab

Conducted by: Ms. Richa Dwivedi Saklani

Ms .Kritika Malhotra

Attended by: Classes IX, X ,XI and XII and parents

Organized by – Pallavan U P V Jhalawar

A career counseling session conducted for the students of classes – IX to XII Pallavan School to dispel doubts and qualms students had regarding their career.

Ms Richa Dwivedi Saklani and Ms Kritika Malhotra briefed students about the career options which they can opt after class 12.

They discussed and display all the career options on the smart board elaborated way with salary package and the course of duration among the students and the parents.

They also cleared the doubts which the students had in their mind ,They gave them a vision for their success and career.

The counselors also conducted an aptitude test of the children so that they may know their aptitude in the interested area.

During the interaction with the parents Ms Richa emphasized on engaging the students in some internship during the summer holidays. The necessity of formulating a career plan and having the required life skills and study skills were emphasized along with due consideration given to aptitude, interest and personality type.

