

Thursday, 15th of August, Pallavan School celebrated 73rd Independence Day with great zeal and patriotism. The celebration started with the flag hoisting The Principal hoisted the flag and gave it the honor and ceremonial salutation followed by the singing of the National Anthem.

Many more events took place on Independence Day i.e. Janhavi Kandelwal presented a poem and junior girls and boys from classes IV and V presented a group Dance which mesmerized everybody. Girl's from class eleventh presented a patriotic dance which was appreciated by all and they also sang a patriotic song.

Mr Rahul gave a speech on the Importance of Independence Day and Mrs Rekha sang a poem. The teachers spread the valuable message to all the students about the freedom fighters and their struggle to attain Independence. They motivated students to be good citizen, honest, responsible, and devoted and play a great role to secure the nation.

The Honorable Principal spoke about the importance of freedom in everyone's life and stressed that we should celebrate this day with great enthusiasm and we should always remember the struggle of freedom fighters and patriots to make our India free. She taught the students the difference between "Independence and Freedom" These people scarified their lives so that we can live happily, with this message she concluded her speech. At the end all the students have taken oath to be honest, responsible and laborious to secure the Nation.

The Junior School Jhalawar and Jhalrapatan also hoisted the tricolor. The Independence Day was celebrated with full energy, thrill, and vigor all around in all branches of Pallavan. The day marks the day of the Independence of our country - India from the rule of the British.

